NOTES FROM JACOB

This week saw the passing of Kurt Kaiser, an incredible church musician, producer, and pianist. I'm sure that some of you were deeply influenced by his songs, "Pass It On" or "O How He Loves You and Me." Maybe you've even sung "Tell It Like It Is" or "Natural High," the youth musicals he produced with Ralph Carmichael which helped to provide a voice to so many youth choirs across the United States. I got to know Kurt while at Baylor and reveled in getting to hear him tell stories of the "glory days" of Word Records. I also had the opportunity to watch him at the piano on numerous occasions, as well as sing on a recording project of hymns he arranged. I will always be grateful for those moments. His creativity and musicianship never ceased to amaze me, but he always gave God the glory for each and every gift he exhibited. Thanks be to God for his life and for songs such as the ones he wrote that provide a soundtrack for our own spiritual journeys.
