NOTES FROM JACOB

The lyric “Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can’t heal” has still been playing on repeat this week, especially as many of us gathered to remember Frances Kennedy yesterday afternoon in the Sanctuary. I was humbled as I looked around and saw chorale members from each section who came out to support one of their own in an hour of great sorrow. This is what being the church is about! The Chorale stands as a microcosm of the larger church, but there’s something special about the intimate act of making music together. Let us continue to fervently lift one another up in prayer, especially Larry and his family in the days ahead.
